DEVOTIONAL

A furious squall came up… Mark 4:37

Some of life's storms - sorrow, disappointment, defeat – come upon us suddenly. Others come upon us slowly, appearing off in the distance but slowly covering our sky and overwhelming us. Yet it is in the storm that God equips us for service. Like the mighty oak tree, God plants us where the storms will shake us and the rains will beat upon us. It is there, in the midnight battle, that we develop the rugged fiber to stand strong for our Lord. The heroes of life are the storm-swept and battle-scarred. Have you been in the storms and swept by the raging winds? Have they left you broken, weary, and beaten in the valley, or have they lifted you to the sunlit summits of a richer, deeper, more abiding manhood or womanhood? Allow the Lord to mold you into the godly man or woman that He has created you to be. All glory and honor be unto Him!

~ Paraphrased from Streams in the Desert
